

Essay Topics

The panel of judges will be evaluating your essay with the following criteria in mind: a) focus on the topic selected; b) respect for grammatical principles; c) respect for suggested length; and d) professionalism of presentation. Select one of the following topics:

- One of the most effective means for an employer to efficiently manage labour cost is by attracting and retaining top-notch employees. Not only would this reduce recurring recruiting and training expenses, but it would also build a strong base for future management candidates. What actions would you take to attract, select and retain the best team members possible?
- A top Toronto restaurant reviewer compared the service quality in Ontario unfavourably to the service ethic of top dining cities such as New York. This suggests an opportunity for operators not only to improve the ways in which they provide service, but also to set themselves apart as industry leaders. What would you do in your 200-seat casual/fine dining restaurant to establish your restaurant as one of the top service providers in your city or town?
